Preface

For nearly five decades, this wine list has been the work of Ken Weber – a reflection of his curiosity, travels, and enduring passion for wine. Today, that journey continues with the next generation as Brian Weber, Level II Certified Sommelier, and Wine Director Bobby Frank help guide and expand the cellar while honoring its foundations.

We are grateful to have received Wine Spectator's Award of Excellence for more than 40 consecutive years, a distinction shared by only a select group of restaurants worldwide. More than an award, it is a testament to a lifelong commitment to thoughtful selections, classic producers, and the simple pleasure of sharing a great bottle.

Sommelier Selections

Wine judge, writer, former restaurant critic and lifelong student of wine, Bobby Frank has spent decades tasting his way through the great wine regions of the world. A WSET Level 3 graduate with Distinction, Bobby has judged wines in France, the United States and Canada and tastes more than a thousand different wines each year. For this collection, Bobby has selected wines he considers exceptional–not simply because they are technically accomplished, but because they have character. These are wines with a story in the glass: unusual aromas, remarkable terroir, unexpected varieties and characteristics you may not encounter anywhere else.
